Fr. Andre "Pat" Patenaude, M.S., musician, composer, singer and recording artist, learned how powerful music could be in his priestly duties, and therefore, made music an integral part of his ministry of teaching and healing. Thousands have experienced the healing touch of his unique ministry, including many visitors to Fatima Shrine nearly every year since 1995. Father Pat has released numerous CDs, including his latest, "The Stations" celebrating Christ's Life, Death and Resurrection. He is known for his graceful tenor voice and charismatic concerts. His healing ministry has taken him across the US, and to countries around the world, including the Philippines, Guam, Spain and France. We are honored to have Fr. Pat back once again to share the gift of himself and his music.
